

TOWNSHIP OF READINGTON
COUNTY OF HUNTERDON, STATE OF NEW JERSEY

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 148 ENTITLED "LAND DEVELOPMENT" OF THE CODE OF
THE TOWNSHIP OF READINGTON TO ADD A NEW SECTION §148-71.I REGULATING THE HOURS OF OPERATION OF NONRESIDENTIAL ESTABLISHMENTS

Ordinance # ____-2016

WHEREAS, the Mayor and Township Committee find that a uniform closing time for businesses located within the Township will:

1. Reduce the level of activity related to patrons, visitors and employees generated by businesses located within, or in close proximity to, residential districts in Readington during the night and early morning hours;
2. Reduce noise, traffic, light, fumes and odor associated with business uses at such times;
3. Promote conditions within these neighborhoods that are more supportive of a residential use and character;
4. Not inhibit typical activities associated with, and expected by, residents within these neighborhoods, including sleeping, conversation, dining, relaxation, outdoor activities and pedestrian and vehicular safety within public rights-of-way; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor and Township Committee also find that the public may need access to pharmacies and various types of medical care during late/early hours and that it is, therefore, in the best interests of the public health, safety and welfare to exempt, from the requirements of this ordinance:

1. Businesses providing medical care, urgent care, or veterinary care; and
2. Businesses with pharmacies when those pharmacies are open; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor and Township Committee further find that it is appropriate to exempt holders of plenary retail consumption and retail distribution licenses from the provisions of this ordinance because such holders are regulated on a statewide basis by the state's Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control, and are subject to liability for the activities of their patrons; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor and Township Committee fnd that the adoption of reasonable limitations on the hours of operation of the businesses identified herein will help balance the needs of Readington's businesses against its residents' rights to the peaceful enjoyment of their properties;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED by the Mayor and Township Committee of the Township of Readington, in the County of Hunterdon, State of New Jersey as follows:

SECTION 1. Code of the Township of Readington Amended and Supplemented. Chapter 148, "Land Development" of the Code of the Township of Readington is hereby amended and supplemented by adding thereto a new section §148-71.1 "Hours of Operation", which shall read as follows:

- (5) The foregoing restriction shall not apply to any business already established and in operation on the date this ordinance is adopted where approved hours of operation differ from the requirements of this subsection.
